EASTERTIDE SERVICES

SPECIAL SERIES OF MEETINGS AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ATTRACT MANY

While Congregationalists as a rule do not take great interest in professional and sensational evangelism, they are always deeply and vitally interested in strong, sane spiritual endeavor for the deepening of the spiritual life and the awakening of an interest among the indifferent and the careless.

The Congregational Church of Glendale is now holding an interesting and helpful series of Eastertide services. Dr. Willisford spoke at both services Sunday. The morning text was, "Oh, that I knew where I might find him." Job. 23:3. The speaker said in part:

"God is found in the heavens, the rocks and hills, in the flowers and fields, but God is found first and fullest in the revelation of Himself in Jesus Christ.

"In every man there is a spark of the Divine waiting the breath of the Holy Spirit to waft it into a glow.

"It is not that God has lost man, but that man has lost God. God should be found by every man. God is not far away. 'Nearer is he than breathing; closer than hands and feet.' Find God now. Today is the day of opportunity."

In the evening the speaker took for his text Matt. 23:37: "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killed the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not."

"Jerusalem, though a much favored city, was doomed. Doomed because it refused to do right, refused to accept the truth, refused to accept Jesus Christ.

"The mission of Jesus Christ was to save, to save Jerusalem, to save every man today. His was a wooing, yearning spirit. His life pre-eminently sacrificial. His gospel universal. 'Whosoever will may come.'"

The service closed with an earnest exhortation for all to accept Christ.

Tonight Rev. Howard D. French of Los Angeles will speak on "The Spirit of Service." Mr. French will bring a strong and helpful message. Mr. Miller, with his golden harp, will furnish a part of the music of the evening.

THE WORLD TOUR

An excellent audience assembled at the First Methodist Church of Glendale Sunday evening for the first of the series of illustrated talks on "Tours Around the World in a Week." The special theme was "Europe—Some of the Wreck of War Building." The aim is to show the Christian agencies which are at work in all parts of the world and to visualize them and their accomplishments by means of fine stereopticon pictures with explanatory talks. The Tuesday night lecture will be "Latin-America—Where Vision Failed." On Wednesday evening, James Jones, a converted railroad man, will tell the story of his life and conversion. Thursday evening, "China—Big Chinaman," will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Kingsley K. Pease, and Friday Dr. W. P. Dodson will talk on "Africa—Light in the Dark Continent."

These lectures will afford a rare opportunity to gain a concrete idea of the evangelistic work which is going on in all parts of the world and every citizen is invited to come and profit by them. There is no charge.

BIG EVENT IN CITRUS CIRCLES

The citrus interests of Southern California are greatly interested in the announcement that the Leffingwell lemon ranch of 370 acres near Whittier is to be subdivided and sold. The subdivision will be made in five, ten and twenty-acre tracts and then the tract will be laid out with a system of improved roads. The ranch is said to comprise one of the largest and most profitable tracts of lemons that can be found in the world. Purchasers will have the privilege of packing through the established Leffingwell houses and using the famous Leffingwell brand. Further information about this sale is given elsewhere in this issue.

SUDDEN DEATH GREAT SHOCK

Jack Adair, salesman with E. J. Jackson, the Overland dealer, was called to Redondo on a very sad errand Monday. His mother had been very low for a long time and her death expected at any time but his father seemed hale and strong, but Monday morning he was stricken with heart failure and died almost instantly. Jack will be absent all week as his mother is still in a most critical condition.

DEBATE VERY CLOSE

JACK JENKINS ACQUITS HIMSELF WELL IN TRYING SITUATION

The Evening News has been advised that the debate at Hollywood Friday evening in which the negative side of the question: "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact a Law Suspending Immigration for Four Years, as Embodied in the Burnett Bill," was taken by Philip Wernette and Jack Jenkins of Glendale Union High School, was very close, and Dr. Snyder, principal of Hollywood High, pronounced it one of the finest debates he has heard this year. In justice to the Glendale team it should be understood that Jack Jenkins with but two or three days for preparation, took the place of Frank Balthis, who was ill. Jenkins acquitted himself in a manner which reflected great credit on the school and ably seconded the excellent work of Wernette. They had further disadvantage of having the weak side, for the awards of the judges went to the affirmative at Hollywood, Glendale and Santa Monica. The judges at Hollywood were Prof. Ward of Occidental, and Messrs. Horton and Holden, the debating coaches of Franklin and Venice High Schools. There was a much better attendance on the debate at Hollywood than at Glendale High, which was, of course, an encouragement to the debaters.

Members of the Board of Directors of the Glendale Red Cross will meet Thursday evening at Chapter headquarters on Brand boulevard.

VICTORY CAMPAIGN

DR. FRENCH OLIVER CONDUCTS STIRRING SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Paragraphs from sermon on "Transfiguration of Christ" by Dr. French E. Oliver at Presbyterian Church:

"Our trouble is in forgetting the Bible—forgetting God and watching people."

"It is significant that Christ occupied such a unique place that Heaven seemed near wherever He went."

"The difficulty with the world is this—the world is not studying the Bible, but the world is watching the lives of the Christians. They keep their eyes on you."

"I have little respect for the person who goes into the church and then out into the world and acts like the devil."

The address of Dr. Oliver is preceded each evening by a lively song service with Howard L. Brown as leader, Lieut. Fuller, soloist, and Chester White at the piano.

REV. NORTON HONORED

The Retired Methodist Ministers' Association of Southern California representing a membership of about 250 assembled Tuesday at Sycamore Grove for their annual picnic and business meeting. Rev. C. R. Norton of Glendale who had served the association for five years as secretary was honored by being elected president for the coming year. This was an honor well deserved by our townsman.

PLAN MASS MEETING

PEOPLE WILL BE INVITED TO DISCUSS CIVIC CENTER QUESTION TUESDAY EVENING

The meeting of the Greater Glendale Development Association Tuesday evening was of unusual interest. In the absence of President Wells, Roy L. Kent presided, C. D. Lusby performing his duties as secretary.

Three gentlemen from Uplands, California, who are interested in the manufacture of aluminum honeycomb supplies, appeared before the meeting and stated that they are contemplating making a change of location from Uplands to a city closer to Los Angeles and that they have Glendale in view as one of the favorable locations. They now employ fifteen people in their factory and in a new location with additional floor space and machinery they would expect to employ fifty people. The Industrial Committee of the Development Association has the proposition under consideration.

The Civic Center, Memorial Park question came up for consideration and after an hour's discussion it was voted to reconsider the question as previously voted upon and that a mass meeting be called for Tuesday evening, April 15th, to be held in the Glendale Union High School auditorium at 8 o'clock, when it is expected that all citizens of Glendale will be represented and take an active part in the meeting. The meeting will be called to order by Norton C. Wells, president of the Greater Glendale Development Association, who will explain the object of the meeting and then ask that the people present elect officers for the evening. The meeting therefore will be entirely in the hands of the citizens of Glendale.

Further announcement of this meeting will be made in later editions of the Glendale Evening News.

Treasurer, Herman Nelson.
Trustees, Francis E. Gilman and J. L. Flint, M. D.
Members of Sick and Relief Committee, Stanley Frentz, Willis M. Kimball and George T. Paine.

Believing that readers will be interested in knowing something of the life histories of the men who are to direct the activities of this important organization the coming year, brief biographies have been secured as follows:

Cameron D. Thom

The installation of Cameron D. Thom as Exalted Ruler, the highest office in the gift of the lodge is evidence of his prominence and popularity in the organization and of his successive promotions. He is a true son of the Golden State; was born in Los Angeles and received his education there and at St. Matthews Military Academy near Los Angeles. He is a thoroughly loyal Elk and has worked hard to promote the best good of the order. A large land owner, he personally supervises the cultivation of a citrus ranch in the Glendale foothills.

Raymond E. Chase

Raymond E. Chase, M. D., who was installed as Esteemed Leading Knight, was born in December, 1878, in Rochester, N. Y., but he came to California in his boyhood and was graduated from Los Angeles High School, and later took a medical course in U. S. C. Since 1883 he has been a resident of Glendale, and since 1904 has been a practicing physician here. He has been Health Officer for twelve years and the only one the city has ever had. He has been an Elk for about five years.

John H. Fanset

John H. Fanset, installed as Esteemed Loyal Knight, was born in 1882 in Neche, North Dakota, and spent 16 years of his life in that state. He then came to Southern California with his parents and with them was occupied with the cultivation of a citrus ranch for a number of years, but resigned that work to enter the business in which he is now engaged as a cleaner and dyer. He has long been an Elk and joined the Santa Barbara Lodge, later becoming a charter member of the Glendale organization.

Alfred F. Priest

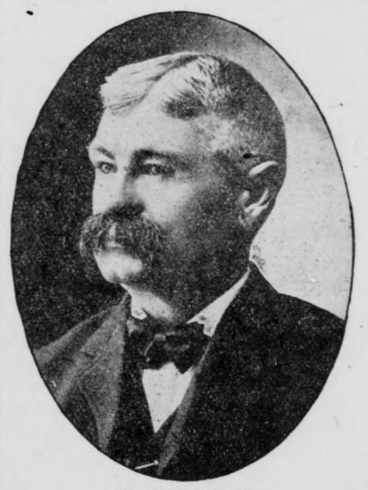
Alfred F. Priest, who was installed as Esteemed Lecturing Knight, has been a member of the lodge for about five years and it is invested for him with a special interest as he was the architect of the beautiful Club House the organization is now enjoying. He was born in 1887 at Pierce, Nebraska, but was taken by his parents to Davenport, Iowa, where his boyhood was spent. In 1904 he went with them to San Francisco where he entered and was graduated from the High School. After two years spent in the Bay City he and the members of his family came to Los Angeles where he entered upon the practice of his profession. During the eight years of his independent professional life he has resided in Glendale and identified himself with its interests.

Arthur H. Dibbern

A. H. Dibbern, Esquire, was born in Boone, Iowa, June 20, 1888. When a boy of 12 he came with his parents to Los Angeles and moved to Glendale in 1908. He gained his education mainly in the Los Angeles schools. Has been a trusted employe of Brock & Co., Los Angeles jewelry firm, for several years, working in the manufacturing department. He and his charming young wife are valued members of the social circle and add much to the life of Elks gatherings.

Norman Edward Otis

Norman Edward Otis, installed as Inner Guard, was born in Oakland, California, Feb. 5, 1895. From there he moved to Portland, Ore., where he went into business with his father when but 15 years of age. In 1911 the business was sold and he went on the stage as a singer. His father died in 1913 and in 1916 he moved with his mother to Glendale and established the Dolly Varden Confectionery store. At the outbreak of the war in 1917 he enlisted in the U. S. Navy and was in service for twenty months, receiving his discharge at Norfolk, Va., Jan. 15, 1919, when he returned to Glendale and joined Jesse Smith in the Ford Agency. He joined the Glendale Elks' Lodge about two years ago.



C. E. McPeak

C. E. McPeak who was installed as Tyler, selected Columbus, Ohio, as the place in which he would be born in 1860. He attended public schools there and then came west, landing in Los Angeles in 1884. He has been in the county ever since and for about 17 years has been a resident of Glendale. Railroading was his initial occupation, but he has been in the plumbing business during all the years he has lived in California and has been an Elk and member of the local lodge for five years.

W. E. Heald

W. E. Heald, Secretary, was born near New Boston, N. H., Sept. 19, 1859. Left there as a boy, going to Iowa, then to Missouri. His education was obtained in the common schools. He learned the jewelers' trade and his first location was in San Angelo, Texas. While there he

COMMUNITY SING

Singers are urged to present themselves promptly at 7:45 Thursday evening at the High School auditorium for the weekly sing because it will be necessary for the leader, Mr. Kirchoffer, to leave early as he is to take a train the same night in Los Angeles for San Diego. The evening will be devoted to drill for the contest to take place in the near future with Hollywood's chorus and it is desirable that every singer be present for the practice and instruction.

ELKS INSTALLATION

affiliated with Elks' Lodge No. 998 and served as Exalted Ruler. He was a delegate to the Grand Lodge held in Dallas, Texas. He located in Tropico in 1910 and was engaged in the jewelry business there the past four years, closing out his store when elected Secretary of 1289. He was affiliated with the Los Angeles Elks until the organization of the local lodge when he joined that. Was delegate to the Grand Lodge that met in Los Angeles.

Herman Nelson

Herman Nelson who for a number of years has very satisfactorily served the local lodge as Treasurer, was born in Forest City, Iowa, about 39 years ago, attending the public schools at Britt, and taking a commercial course. He began a university course but decided he preferred a business life, especially banking, of which he had already had a taste. Eight years ago he came to California and formed a connection with the Bank of Glendale which has continued to the present time.

Francis E. Gilman

Francis E. Gilman, installed as Trustee, was born in San Jose, Cal., where he remained until the outbreak of the Spanish-American War, when he enlisted. After being mustered out at its close he entered the employ of Cunningham, Curtiss & Welch, Booksellers and Stationers, with whom he continued at San Francisco and Los Angeles until he established an independent business in Glendale in February of the present year. He has resided in Glendale for four years and joined the lodge a year ago; is the editor of the Bulletin published by the lodge. He is also a member of the Native Sons of California and a past president of that order.

Dr. James L. Flint

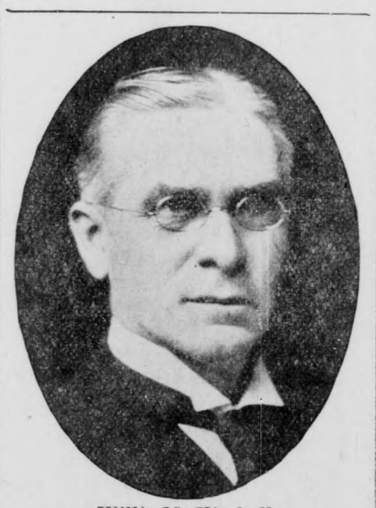
Dr. James L. Flint, who was elected and installed as a trustee when a vacancy occurred on the Board a few weeks ago, is one of the young professional men identified with the order. He was born in Monroe county, Ohio, but while still quite young went with his parents to Las Vegas, New Mexico, where the greater part of his life was spent and where he was graduated from the New Mexico Normal University of Las Vegas. His degree as Doctor of Medicine was received from Marion Simms Medical College, St. Louis, in 1906, and his knowledge was supplemented by a course at the New York Post Graduate School. He began the practice of his profession at Mora, N. M. About six years ago he came to Glendale where he found his wife and where he has since remained except for the interval in which he was in army service.

George T. Paine

George T. Paine, a member of the Sick or Relief Committee, was born in Provincetown, Cape Cod. While still a little boy he moved with his parents to Ohio and still later to Edgemont, South Dakota, where the greater part of his life was spent and where he developed large business interests, some of which he still retains. There he carried on a large stock-raising business and was also interested in a bank, part of the time as its president. While in Edgemont he became a member of the Elks' Lodge at Leeds, South Dakota. In October, 1911, he came to Glendale where he participated in the organization of the local lodge as a charter member. He has filled the same office he now holds before, having been elected trustee for a three-year term in 1914.

Stanley Frentz

Stanley Frentz, member of the Sick Committee, was born in 1868 in Toledo, Ohio. Just before attaining his majority he came to Los Angeles and opened a paint and wall paper store which he conducted for about 25 years. Ten years ago he retired from business and came to Glendale to live and has devoted much of his time during the last three years to the charitable work of the organization, a service so much appreciated by his fellow members that he was elected a life member a year ago. He was nominated to the office of trustee to succeed Howard Walker, resigned, and having no opposition will undoubtedly be elected at the next regular meeting. He has served the lodge in that capacity in the past and is familiar with the duties of the office.



Willis M. Kimball

Willis M. Kimball, member of the Sick and Relief Committee, from the standpoint of membership in the order is the oldest Elk in Glendale, as he was a charter member of Lodge No. 64 in Rockford, Illinois. He was also a charter member of the local lodge, and has seen the order grow from 64 to 1,350 lodges. He is of New England ancestry, was born in Rockford, Illinois, 60 years ago, and spent half a century there where he engaged in banking and mercantile business and filled important offices—was a member of the city council for 15 years and for four years was superintendent of the municipal water plant of Rockford. He came west on account of his health and has practically spent his life in Rockford and Glendale. He has been a member of the order for 32 years.

Archie M. Parker, the genial proprietor of the Quality Grocery, was a Long Beach visitor Sunday.

Miss Louise Hollenbeck, 815 S. Maryland Ave., is down with the flu but it is not a serious case.

Chaplain C. R. Norton reports that there is a large representation of N. P. Banks Post and Corps at the Appamatox day celebration at Sycamore Grove today.

W. J. Stone has sold his property at 641 N. Brand boulevard to James A. Day, 623 N. Central Ave., and will give possession in June. They will then get ready to move up to the ranch, near Paso Robles.

Mrs. D. H. Smith of 302 North Maryland avenue will be the hostess of Chapter L. of the P. E. O. Wednesday. Members of Chapter A. H. of the Glendale Gateway District will be the special guests of the day.

Mrs. E. K. Barnes of 1303 North Brand boulevard sprung a surprise on her son Mansford by entertaining in his honor last Friday with a chicken dinner, about fourteen of his young men friends. They remained for a musical evening.

Mrs. Philip Hinkey, from China, and Rev. E. J. Richards, home secretary, of New York, will be the speakers tonight at the Christian Alliance Conference, Louise and Chestnut streets.

Mrs. Mary J. Riggs, who has been spending the winter with her daughter in Highlands, has returned to her home at 108 E. Elk avenue, which has just been vacated by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rochester who are moving to Hollywood to be near their son, Dr. Rochester, who is establishing himself as a physician there. Mrs. Riggs says it seems good to be at home again.

The big social event of the week among the younger society set is the Sophomore Dance which will be given Friday evening at the Masonic Temple. It will be in charge of the class committee, the chairman being Miss Eva Green, Class President. Other members are: Helen Beach, Jessie Gregg, Dorothy Haig, Neville Richardson and Victor Colburn. Mothers of members of the class will act as chaperones.

Mrs. L. N. Hagood goes to Los Angeles this afternoon to meet a five o'clock train on which she expects her grandmother, Mrs. McIlhenny, of Fayette, Mo., to arrive. Mrs. McIlhenny, who is 76, but as active and independent as a woman of half her years, comes to the coast to spend the summer with Mrs. Hagood and another grand-daughter, Mrs. Roger Swire, Jr., of Alhambra, sister of Mrs. Hagood.

Friends of Lieut. R. C. Plume were interested to read his name in the list of officers of the 160th Infantry now on their way to the Pacific Coast in the dispatches from Chicago published Monday evening. It now seems reasonably certain that the 160th will reach Los Angeles Thursday afternoon or Friday morning and have its official welcome and parade in the Angel City Friday. It has been announced that the L. A. schools will close that day to give pupils an opportunity to participate in the welcome. No information has been given in regard to the action of schools in the suburbs especially the Glendale schools.

PACIFIC P.-T. A.

The Pacific Avenue P.-T. A. will give a splendid program in the school building, Thursday, April 10th, at 2:45.

GERALDINE BEATRICE BOARDMAN

Geraldine Beatrice Boardman, beloved wife of Horace W. Boardman and mother of Horace Boardman, Jr., died Monday at 207 Hawthorne St., at the age of 39. She came to Glendale from Philadelphia about five months ago in the hope, which was never realized, of regaining her impaired health. Funeral services will be held today (Wednesday), at 3 o'clock, at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company, and the remains will be taken to Philadelphia for interment by Mrs. Rommell, sister of deceased, who was with her when she died and who will be accompanied by her nephew.

CLUB ENTERTAINS

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB GIVES RECEPTION TO HUSBANDS, SOLDIERS, SAILORS

Flags everywhere, big flags, little flags, made gay the auditorium of the Masonic Temple for the annual reception Tuesday evening of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and suggested the hospitable intent of the organization expressed by its president, Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, when she called the meeting to order, and said: "We are offering a double welcome tonight. We are honoring those who fought for us and—those who fight with us." As the meeting was designated on the calendar as "Husbands' Night" the laughter which greeted the sally testified to an appreciation of her point. Mrs. Ramsay then introduced Mrs. E. D. Yard, first vice-president, who in a very few words extended a cordial greeting to the husbands. Mrs. Freeman Kelley, who had charge of the program, was then introduced and on behalf of the club extended a greeting to its special guests, the soldiers and sailors of Glendale, saying:

"I wish to let you know how much you have been in our thoughts while absent and also in our hearts. Not a day has passed in which the memory has not been with us of what our boys were doing for us. If you could have seen the whole-hearted enthusiasm with which the women of the club entered into every enterprise to assist you, you would more fully realize the high esteem, honor and love and pride in which you were held for doing your part so nobly and unselfishly in bringing to the world once more, peace. Every day that you have been away we have sung and repeated that beautiful little anthem: 'God Bless Our Splendid Men,' and now that you have come home again we still repeat, 'God Bless Our Splendid Men.'"

Mrs. Kelley then introduced the artists of the evening, who provided a very delightful musical program which was thoroughly enjoyed. The majority were local, or well known in Glendale, which added to the interest, the only exception being Miss Marian Hobbs Higgins, a very fine professional violinist recently come from Detroit, Michigan, where she was at the head of her profession. The audience was especially delighted with the quartette composed of Mrs. Mabel Capell, D. Ripley Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, each of whom also had solo numbers which evoked tremendous applause. The whistler, Miss Margaret McKee, also delighted the audience greatly. Following was the program:

Piano duet from a Mendelssohn symphony, by Mesdames Eva Cunningham and Roy Masters.

(a) "God Be with Our Boys Tonight" and "O Hush Thee, My Baby," by quartette, accompanied on piano by Miss Ina Whitaker.

"Dawning" (Cadman), and "Bird Raptures" (Schneider), by Margaret McKee.

"Romance" (Swenson), and an encore number, Mrs. Marian Hobbs Higgins, with piano accompaniment by Miss Gertrude Champlain.

"The Sweet of the Year," solo, by Mrs. Charles Parker, accompanied on piano by Miss Champlain.

"Birds and Brook;" Margaret McKee.

"The Two Grenadiers," solo, by Charles Parker, with piano accompaniment by Miss Whitaker.

"The Souvenir," violin solo, by Mrs. Higgins, accompanied by Miss Champlain.

"Mattinata" and "My Laddie," by Mrs. Mabel Capell, accompanied by Miss Whitaker.

"A Spray of Roses," D. Ripley Jackson, accompanied by Miss Whitaker.

Following the program was an informal social hour and refreshments which included sandwiches and coffee, home-made cake and ice-cream.

In many respects it was one of the most successful receptions the Club has ever enjoyed.

ENTERTAINS FOR SISTER

Mrs. E. D. Baker of 311 W. Colorado, is entertaining her sister, Miss Lorraine Harrison, of San Francisco, who has come to spend a month or more here resting from strenuous work.
